

Trista Tatsch
Head Coach

This will be Coach Trista Tatsch's first year as the head coach for the Lady Highlanders, but it will be her 17th year coaching here at TWHS. She is so very excited to take over such an outstanding program that is filled with such wonderful young ladies. Coach Tatsch is a 1999 graduate of Texas A&M-Kingsville with a bachelors degree in Kinesiology and Health. She loves to stay active by running whenever she has an opportunity and competing in numerous road races. She also loves to travel and see every beach that she possibly can! She feels absolutely blessed to have the opportunity to teach and coach here at TWHS and believes that there is nothing better than being a HIGHLANDER!!

Megan Storms
Varsity First Assistant/JV Coach

Coach Megan Storms enters her ninth year of coaching at The Woodlands High School, and has been teaching and coaching basketball in CISD for a total of eleven years. She is a graduate of TWHS and received a full scholarship to play both volleyball and basketball at Lamar University. Megan graduated from Lamar in 2006 with a degree in Kinesiology. Coach Storms takes every opportunity she has to travel, and in her spare time she likes watching sports and enjoys staying active. Megan is married to Michael Storms who is the head boys basketball coach at Willis High School.

Richard Chiamulera
Freshman Coach

The 2016-2017 year will be Coach Richard Chiamulera's first season working with the The Woodlands High School Lady Highlander Basketball program. Previously, Coach Chiamulera has coached basketball in Houston, Texas; Memphis, Tennessee; and Marquette, Michigan. He has also coached softball in Houston, Texas and Memphis, Tennessee; football in Clarksville, Tennessee; and track and field in Marquette, Michigan and Clarksville, Tennessee. Coach Chiamulera earned his Master's Degree from Walden University and Bachelor's Degree from Northern Michigan University. He feels blessed to be a part of the Lady Highlander family and becoming a Highlander!

Ryan Clapsaddle
Freshman Coach

Coach Clapsaddle is a 2010 graduate of The Woodlands High School. He competed in several sports throughout his high school career here at TWHS. Coach Clapsaddle went on to earn a bachelors degree in history with a minor in kinesiology and masters degree in criminal justice at Angelo State University while also competing for the Ram's football team. He has always had a passion for coaching and working with high school aged students and is looking forward to a new group of athletes to work with this upcoming season.